

MICHEL PELLERIN, M.D., FRCSC

Academic Qualifications
Degree/Certification	Date	Institution, Country
MSc surgical biology & artificial organs	1993-1995	University of Paris VI, France
Fellow Royal College of Surgeons of Canada (Cardiovascular and thoracic surgery)	1991-1993	University of Montreal, Canada
Fellow Royal College of Surgeons of Canada (General Surgery)	1986-1990	Laval University, Quebec Canada
License from Medical Council of Canada	1985-1986	Laval University, Quebec Canada
MD, medicine	1981-1985	Laval University, Quebec Canada

Current and Previous Relevant Positions Including Academic Appointments
Dates	Title	Institution/Company, Country
2012	President	Quebec, Association of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgeons
2005	Professor of Surgery	University of Montreal
2004	Michal & Renata Hornstein Chair in Cardiac surgery	Montreal Heart Institute and University of Montreal, Canada
2003- 2012	Department Head	Department of Cardiac Surgery Montreal Heart Institute
2000- 2005	Associate Professor	Department of Surgery University of Montreal, Canada Montreal, Quebec, Canada
1996-...	Director of Prospective Follow-up Heart Valves Clinic	Montreal Heart Institute, Canada
1995-...	Cardiovascular and thoracic surgeon	Montreal Heart Institute, Canada
1995-2000	Assistant Professor	Department of Surgery University of Montreal, Canada

Brief Summary of Relevant Clinical Research Experience:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Michel Pellerin is professor of surgery at the university of Montreal, where he also serves as a cardiovascular and thoracic surgeon at the Montreal Heart Institute. He was Head of the Department Surgery from 2004 to 2012 and he is the actual Director of the Prospective Heart Valves Clinic. • Dr Pellerin graduated in medicine at University Laval in 1985, then in General Surgery in 1990. He subspecialized in Cardiovascular surgery at the University of Montreal in 1993. He has completed a Master in Science in surgical biology and artificial organs at the University of Paris VI under the leadership of Pr Alain F Carpentier MD PhD as a scholar of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada. • Dr Pellerin has authored and co-authored more than 130 articles and abstracts in peer-reviewed publications. • He has also written several book chapters and multimedia surgical videos. • Dr Pellerin is a frequently invited lecturer and his most recent topics of discussion are: mitral valve repair, surgical technology, long term outcomes after valve surgery, and minimally invasive cardiac surgery.